

Press Release

Local Quality Association Elects Leaders for 2010-2011

Professional society works to improve business processes

Lorain, Ohio, May 24, 2010: The American Society of Quality (www.asq.org) Chapter 0814 of Elyria/Lorain is proud to announce its leaders for 2010-2011. The volunteer group's mission is to advance community and member quality excellence through educational opportunities, non-competitive information exchange, networking, forming alliances and leadership growth. The leadership for 2010-2011 includes:

- Chairman· John M. Cachat, President and CEO of Silico Corporation
- Treasurer· Paul Contoveros of Polyone
- Secretary· Kim Shumyla of LifeShare Community Blood Services
- Audit Chair· David Mayo of Automotive Components Holdings
- Membership Chair· George Ingmand

The new executive board members are looking forward to serving as leaders for ASQ, and have already developed several goals and strategies to further improve the organization. Throughout the upcoming year they hope to increase membership, reach out to younger professionals, integrate more social gatherings in addition to their professional meetings, provide more networking and educational opportunities, increase their online presence and format their business presentations to be more interactive. Incoming chairman, John Cachat said, "We would like to develop closer ties with the young professionals of Cleveland, and to do so we look forward to hosting a number of social networking opportunities including happy hours, golf outings, and more interactive presentations."

For Release 9 a.m. EDT, May 24, 2010

Local Quality Association Elects Leaders for 2010-2011

The Elyria/Lorain chapter has been recognized by ASQ Headquarters for ongoing excellence for the last several years. In addition to monthly meetings held at the LCCC Spitzer Conference center with nationally recognized speakers, the chapter is very active in the community and supports community charitable events and drives, local student scholarships, and provides an excellent networking opportunity for students and individuals looking for employment. The chapter's website is www.asq-elyrialorain.org.

###